Community Affairs Monthly Summary

On July 1st, our department was invited to the Lakes of Sylvania, Retirement and Assisted Living Facility, for a special event to honor our first responders. Organizers welcomed police, fire, and EMT personnel to their campus where those involved drove emergency vehicles around the campus while the residents looked on and cheered. After the mini parade, first responders got a chance to mingle with the residents (pictured right). It was an honor to be honored!

On July 3rd, community affairs officer Joe Sulaica set up a wonderful display full of goodies to hand out at the annual "Star Spangled Celebration Fireworks Display" at Centennial Terrace/Pacesetter Park." Officer Sulaica was able to mingle and associate with members of the community where thousands had gathered for the best fireworks in the area.

On July 8th, multiple officers from the police department to include community affairs, road patrol, and the chief of police gathered at the Sylvania Senior Center for "coffee with a cop." This is an event the police department puts on from time to time to engage community members, especially the regular members of the Sylvania Senior Center (pictured left).

On July 22nd, Sylvania Township Police, in conjunction with Handel's Homemade Ice Cream hosted "Cops 'N Cones." This is the second time STPD has hosted this event at Handel's Homemade Ice Cream (pictured right). Handel's was a terrific host for the event and even offered a free scoop of ice cream to any child under the age of 18. Meanwhile, a table with giveaways was set up to provide even more opportunities to engage with community members, especially children.

Social Media: In addition to monitoring the STPD Facebook page daily and responding to messages, eight posts were made:

- July 1 – Reminder of traffic patterns posted for the community to prepare for July 3rd fireworks.
- July 7 – Shared post from Lakes of Sylvania to show appreciation for the event they put on: "Hometown Heroes."
- July 8 – Shared post from Sylvania Senior Center thanking them for hosting "coffee with a cop".
- July 10 – First post advertising upcoming "Cops 'N Cones" event at Handel's Ice Cream.
- July 21 – Shared Facebook event created for "Cops 'N Cones" event.
- July 21 – Additional reminder post for "Cops 'N Cones" event.
- July 28 – Post concerning the passing of retired Sgt. Robert Hankenhof.
- July 30 – Missing child details shared for the community to be on the lookout.

Public Safety Cadets: June: Traffic stop education; TASER education; Assist with Safety Town; 7 active cadets and no ride-alongs completed. July: Building searches education; "MILO" simulator; Six volunteers helped with July 3rd fireworks traffic detail; 7 active cadets and no ride-alongs.
