Community Affairs Monthly Summary

On November 1st, Tractor Supply Company at 7718 W. Central Ave. invited officers to their location to be celebrated as part of the company's "Hometown Heroes" event. This event was an opportunity for the community to give thanks to first responders who do so much for the community. Community Affairs officers attended the event and mingled with community members and staff of Tractor Supply Co. At the conclusion of the event, Tractor Supply Co graciously presented the Department with a check for $250 (pictured right).

On November 19th, community affairs officers wrapped up their yearly Law Enforcement Against Drugs (L.E.A.D.) classes at the elementary schools in the Township. Our hard-working officers put in over 12 weeks of teaching and lesson planning to educate fifth graders on topics such as regulating emotions, peer pressure, alcohol, tobacco, and more! Congratulations to Officers Matt and Joe on another successful year of teaching. More on this to come . . .

On November 21st, Officer Matt Miller celebrated the completion of the Whiteford Elementary L.E.A.D. program with the fifth-grade students.

On November 24th, Officer Joe Sulaica celebrated the completion of the Stranahan Elementary L.E.A.D. program with the fifth-grade students (pictured left with some high achieving students).

On November 25th, Officer Joe Sulaica celebrated the completion of the Hillview Elementary L.E.A.D. program with the fifth-grade students.

On November 25th, Officer Matt Miller celebrated the completion of the Central Trail Elementary L.E.A.D. program with the fifth-grade students.

Social Media: In addition to monitoring the STPD Facebook page daily and responding to messages, six posts were made:

- November 6 – Seeking help from the community to identify a suspect in a breaking and entering.
- November 6 – Appreciation post for Tractor Supply Co.
- November 10 – Seeking the public's help locating a missing juvenile. Post was updated when the juvenile was found.
- November 11 – Appreciation on Veteran's Day thanking the veterans in the community and our own department.
- November 25 – Holiday season safety alert for the community with tips on how to stay safe.
- November 29 – Shared post by Lucas County Sheriff's Office for level 1 snow advisory.

Public Safety Cadets: Two meetings were held in November. One meeting consisted of a cold case investigation carried out by the Sylvania City Police Department. Another meeting involved the SCPD drone program and recently acquired aerial drone. This meeting also included a hands-on demonstration. One ride-along was completed this month. There are eight active cadets listed on the roster, with one more prospective new member.
