Community Affairs Monthly Summary

The Community Affairs Bureau is bringing many new and enhanced opportunities in 2026. Despite the snow days, Officer Miller has remained busy updating programs and preparing for our upcoming Citizen's Police Academy in March, which is already nearing a full class. Safety Township is also on the horizon for this summer, with planning already underway. Applications are steadily coming in for eager incoming kindergarteners.

Officer Miller was presented with a Third-Place trophy by Santa Claus for STPD's Christmas tree at Children's Wonderland.

- There are 8 active members of the Public Safety Cadets
- Two meetings were held during the month of January, on January 6 and January 20
- Meeting topics included gathering cadet feedback regarding program expectations, crisis intervention and the process for completing a "Pink Slip", domestic violence and disorderly conduct, and instruction on the phonetic alphabet
