Public Safety Cadets

- July 8th: Cadets were able to go to the Lucas County Jail for a tour! They observed the intake process and asked questions. Additionally, they got to listen to an inmate speak about the unit he is in.
- July 21st: Cadets had the opportunity to test their decision-making skills with the MILO judgmental use of force training simulator. All Cadets went through scenarios on their own, with minimal information. The Cadets were able to articulate their decisions, speak clearly, and have a good open dialogue about the use of force.

Facebook

- July 3rd: The Sylvania Township Community wished Lt. McKinney a happy retirement.
- June 5th: A post was made congratulating Sgt. Grant on his promotion at STPD.

- July 10th: A Missing juvenile was updated as located.
- July 31st: A post was made congratulating Lt. Bostater on his promotion at STPD.
